WORK HISTORY

Technical Operations Analyst | Oct'17- Present

IBM Watson Health

- As a senior member of the team started to look over Payer, Provider and Market Expert teams and started working for all three teams simultaneously. Made sure new recruits had the understanding of the complete process and not just their daily tasks.
- Started to learn about Blockchain and possible implementation of the same in our day-to-day process.

Database Administrator | Market Expert | Jan'17 – Sep'17

IBM Watson Health (Acquired Truven Health Analytics)

- Worked on combining hospital data with proprietary IBM Watson Health data to help strategic planners better understand and predict the healthcare needs and buying habits within the community.
- Pre-process the incoming data to make it compatible with IBM Watson Health's standard dataset.
- Worked extensively on MS Access and SQL Server Management to build database for various hospitals.
- Troubleshoot issues relating to rawdata received from hospitals.

Associate Analyst Data Acquisition | Provider | Oct'15 – Dec'16

Truven Health Analytics Ind. Pvt. Ltd.

- Ensure incoming data passes the initial strict data validation checks.
- Prepare acute Data Quality Report, which throws light on errors within a file along with the percentage of error, and send it to client for approval.
- Upload the Report to relevant Products and make sure it meets all the requirements from the client
- Pull out threshold reports using Oracle 11g to review Projects' status.
- Pull out Cognos reports to provide summary of month-wise data received from clients.

Associate Analyst Data Acquisition | Payer | Jan'14 – Sep'15

Truven Health Analytics Ind. Pvt. Ltd.

- Setup a safe and secure connection between clients and Truven to send/receive large chunks of data.
- Troubleshoot various issues that are hindrance to data transfer.
- Perform strict quality checks on all the data received from our clients. Ensure zero-errors before data moves to next process.

KEY COMPETENCIES

- Quick and Eager Learner
- Experience in working with Clients directly to resolve issues
- Experience in interacting with onsite counterparts and Managers on a daily basis
- Adopting new technologies
- Efficient co-ordination with team members
